One of the most crucial considerations is ensuring the story's content aligns with the child's age and maturity level. For younger children (ages 4-8), stories should be gently spooky, avoiding graphic violence or intense horror. Instead, they might include friendly ghosts, playful monsters, or innocent mysteries. - Build-up: Introduce an element of mystery or suspense.
- Climax: The peak of tension, where the mystery or scare reaches its highest point.
- Resolution: A satisfying ending that often includes a moral or lesson, or a twist that relieves tension.

Pacing is vital; stories should build suspense gradually so that children remain engaged without feeling overwhelmed.

Language and Tone

The language used should be
